

Members of the Torrance Kiwanis Club toured the Edison Company steam generating plant in Redondo Beach last Monday evening.

The tour, arranged by Stu Averá, program chairman for the evening, lasted from 7:30 until 9 p.m.

The board of directors of the Torrance Kiwanis Club last week earmarked $25 to be used to purchase trophies for the Torrance Little League baseball team winners, according to an announcement in the Tor-wanian.

Rancher's Corner Offers Complete Market Facilities

It was a "far cry" from 1918 today at 174th st. and Hawthorne ave., where the Grand Opening of Rancher's Corner is underway. Because in 1918 only a minute poultry stand, carrying the banners of Manor Poultry, was visible for miles around in the early Torrance "wilderness."

Today the accumulation of 37 years of hard work by the Capellino family is noticed by the most nonchalant passersby. Rancher's Corner offers a complete line of produce, meats and poultry with an accommodation grocery department. Produce and grocery departments are open 24 hours a day.

The produce department is one of the largest in California, according to owner, while the meat section will have 50 feet of new Weber frozen food cases, a complete frozen food section, and a service and self-service delicatessen, reports owner Ben Deppe.

Take Over
The three Capellino brothers, George, Jim and Dick, took over the poultry business from their parents Joe and Anna Capellino in 1946 and have since increased the killing capacity from 400 to 15,000 chickens per day. The first expansion took place in 1948 when the initial enlargement in the killing department was completed.

Early in 1954 the brothers formulated the idea for a complete "ranch-type" market adjacent to Manor Poultry, which is now completed. A wholesale-retail business, Manor serves numerous markets, restaurants, and clubs with its products.

The new development consists of 17,500 square feet, including the meat and produce. This, added to Manor's 15,000 square feet gives the "Corner" 32,500 feet of space to serve the South Bay buyer.

Meat Market
Ben Deppe, owner of the meat market, operated the Vissalia Meat Packing Company until 1941 when the service beckoned. After the war Deppe moved to Southern California where he opened the Wrigley markets on Manchester blvd. in Westchester and also the Wrigley store on Avalon in Los Angeles. For the past three years Deppe has owned and operated the meat department of Pier Ave. Market in Redondo.

With former stores at both Hawthorne and Redondo Beach blvds. and Torrance and Hawthorne blvd., Collie Vivonia
